There are lots of great products in modern agriculture in the US, also many valuable experiences and methods. Meanwhile, China has a very big agricultural market, and the level of modernization keeps improving. The two countries have huge potential for cooperation in trade, investment, research science, production and so on. As the only state level modern agricultural demonstration zone and Agricultural Free Trade Zone of China, Yangling has great prospects in cooperation with the US in the field of modern agriculture.

Firstly , to carry out cooperation in fields like high quality agro-food import and export, agricultural equipment manufacturing, food processing, and modern in Yangling Free Trade Zone,.

Secondly, to enhance cooperation in transformation of agricultural science and research achievement. To promote the bilateral visits for agricultural experts and technicians of both counties. To land a group of collaborative projects in agricultural development strategy study and technology application and promotion .

Thirdly, to strengthen communication in fairs and exhibitions. To jointly promote the friendly relationship between major American agricultural fairs with CAF of Yangling. Actively attend fairs in each other's country, and to build platform of cooperation for companies in both counties.

Fourthly, to promote cooperation in industrial investments. All of you here today are welcomed to visit Yangling, and to seek for opportunities of investment in Yangling. We will make all efforts to be well prepared with our best service.

Thank you!
